INTERNATIONAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

June 25, 2000

Mr. Boris Perchatkin
President
American Russian Relief Center
P.O. Box 871448
Vancouver, WA 98687

Dear Mr. Perchatkin:

I am pleased to send you a copy of the first Annual Report of the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom, along with the Staff Memorandum prepared in its support. The report was submitted to the President, the Secretary of State, and Congress on May 1 as per the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998.

While the Commission is tracking violations of religious freedom in many countries, this first report focused primarily on Sudan, China, and Russia, recommending U.S. policy responses to the varied problems in each.

We hope you find this information both interesting and useful. We welcome any reliable information you may wish to share with us regarding violations of religious freedom abroad.

Sincerely,

ATM Farland

Steven T. McFarland
Executive Director

Dear Mr. Perchotkin:

I have received your fax dated March 26 with documents regarding the Khabarovsk Regional authorities' refusal to register the Triumph of Faith Christian Evangelical Church in Amursk, Russia.

We are passing copies of these documents to the Department of State, with a request that they look into the matter and keep us informed.

Thank you for sending us this information and for your support of the Commission's work. It was good to see you at our meeting at the beginning of the month in Washington.

Sincerely,

Lawrence J. G. Welch

Dear Mr. Perchatkin:

Congratulations to you and your many fellow believers on the 20th anniversary of the onset of large-scale emigration by Pentecostal Christians of the former Soviet Union to the United States.

Best wishes for your upcoming conference devoted to the commemoration of this milestone in the history of the struggle for religious liberty.

Sincerely,

Alcee L. Hastings, M.C.
Chairman
